Hats off to Mr. McCue

With pride we dedicate to our principal, Mr. L. H. McCue, Jr. this first volume of the CREST issued from the new school.

It is with deepest gratitude that we remember how tirelessly he has worked to make possible the construction of the beautiful building, supervising with unflagging spirit the hundreds of minute details involved in making E. C. Glass High School the magnificent building it is.

Dr. Munro, superintendent of our schools, has always shown a special interest in E. C. Glass and its activities.

After graduating from Emory University, Dr. Munro took his M.A. Degree and his Ph.D. Degree from Columbia University. Lynchburg has profited from Dr. Munro's rich background of experience.

Superintendent of Schools

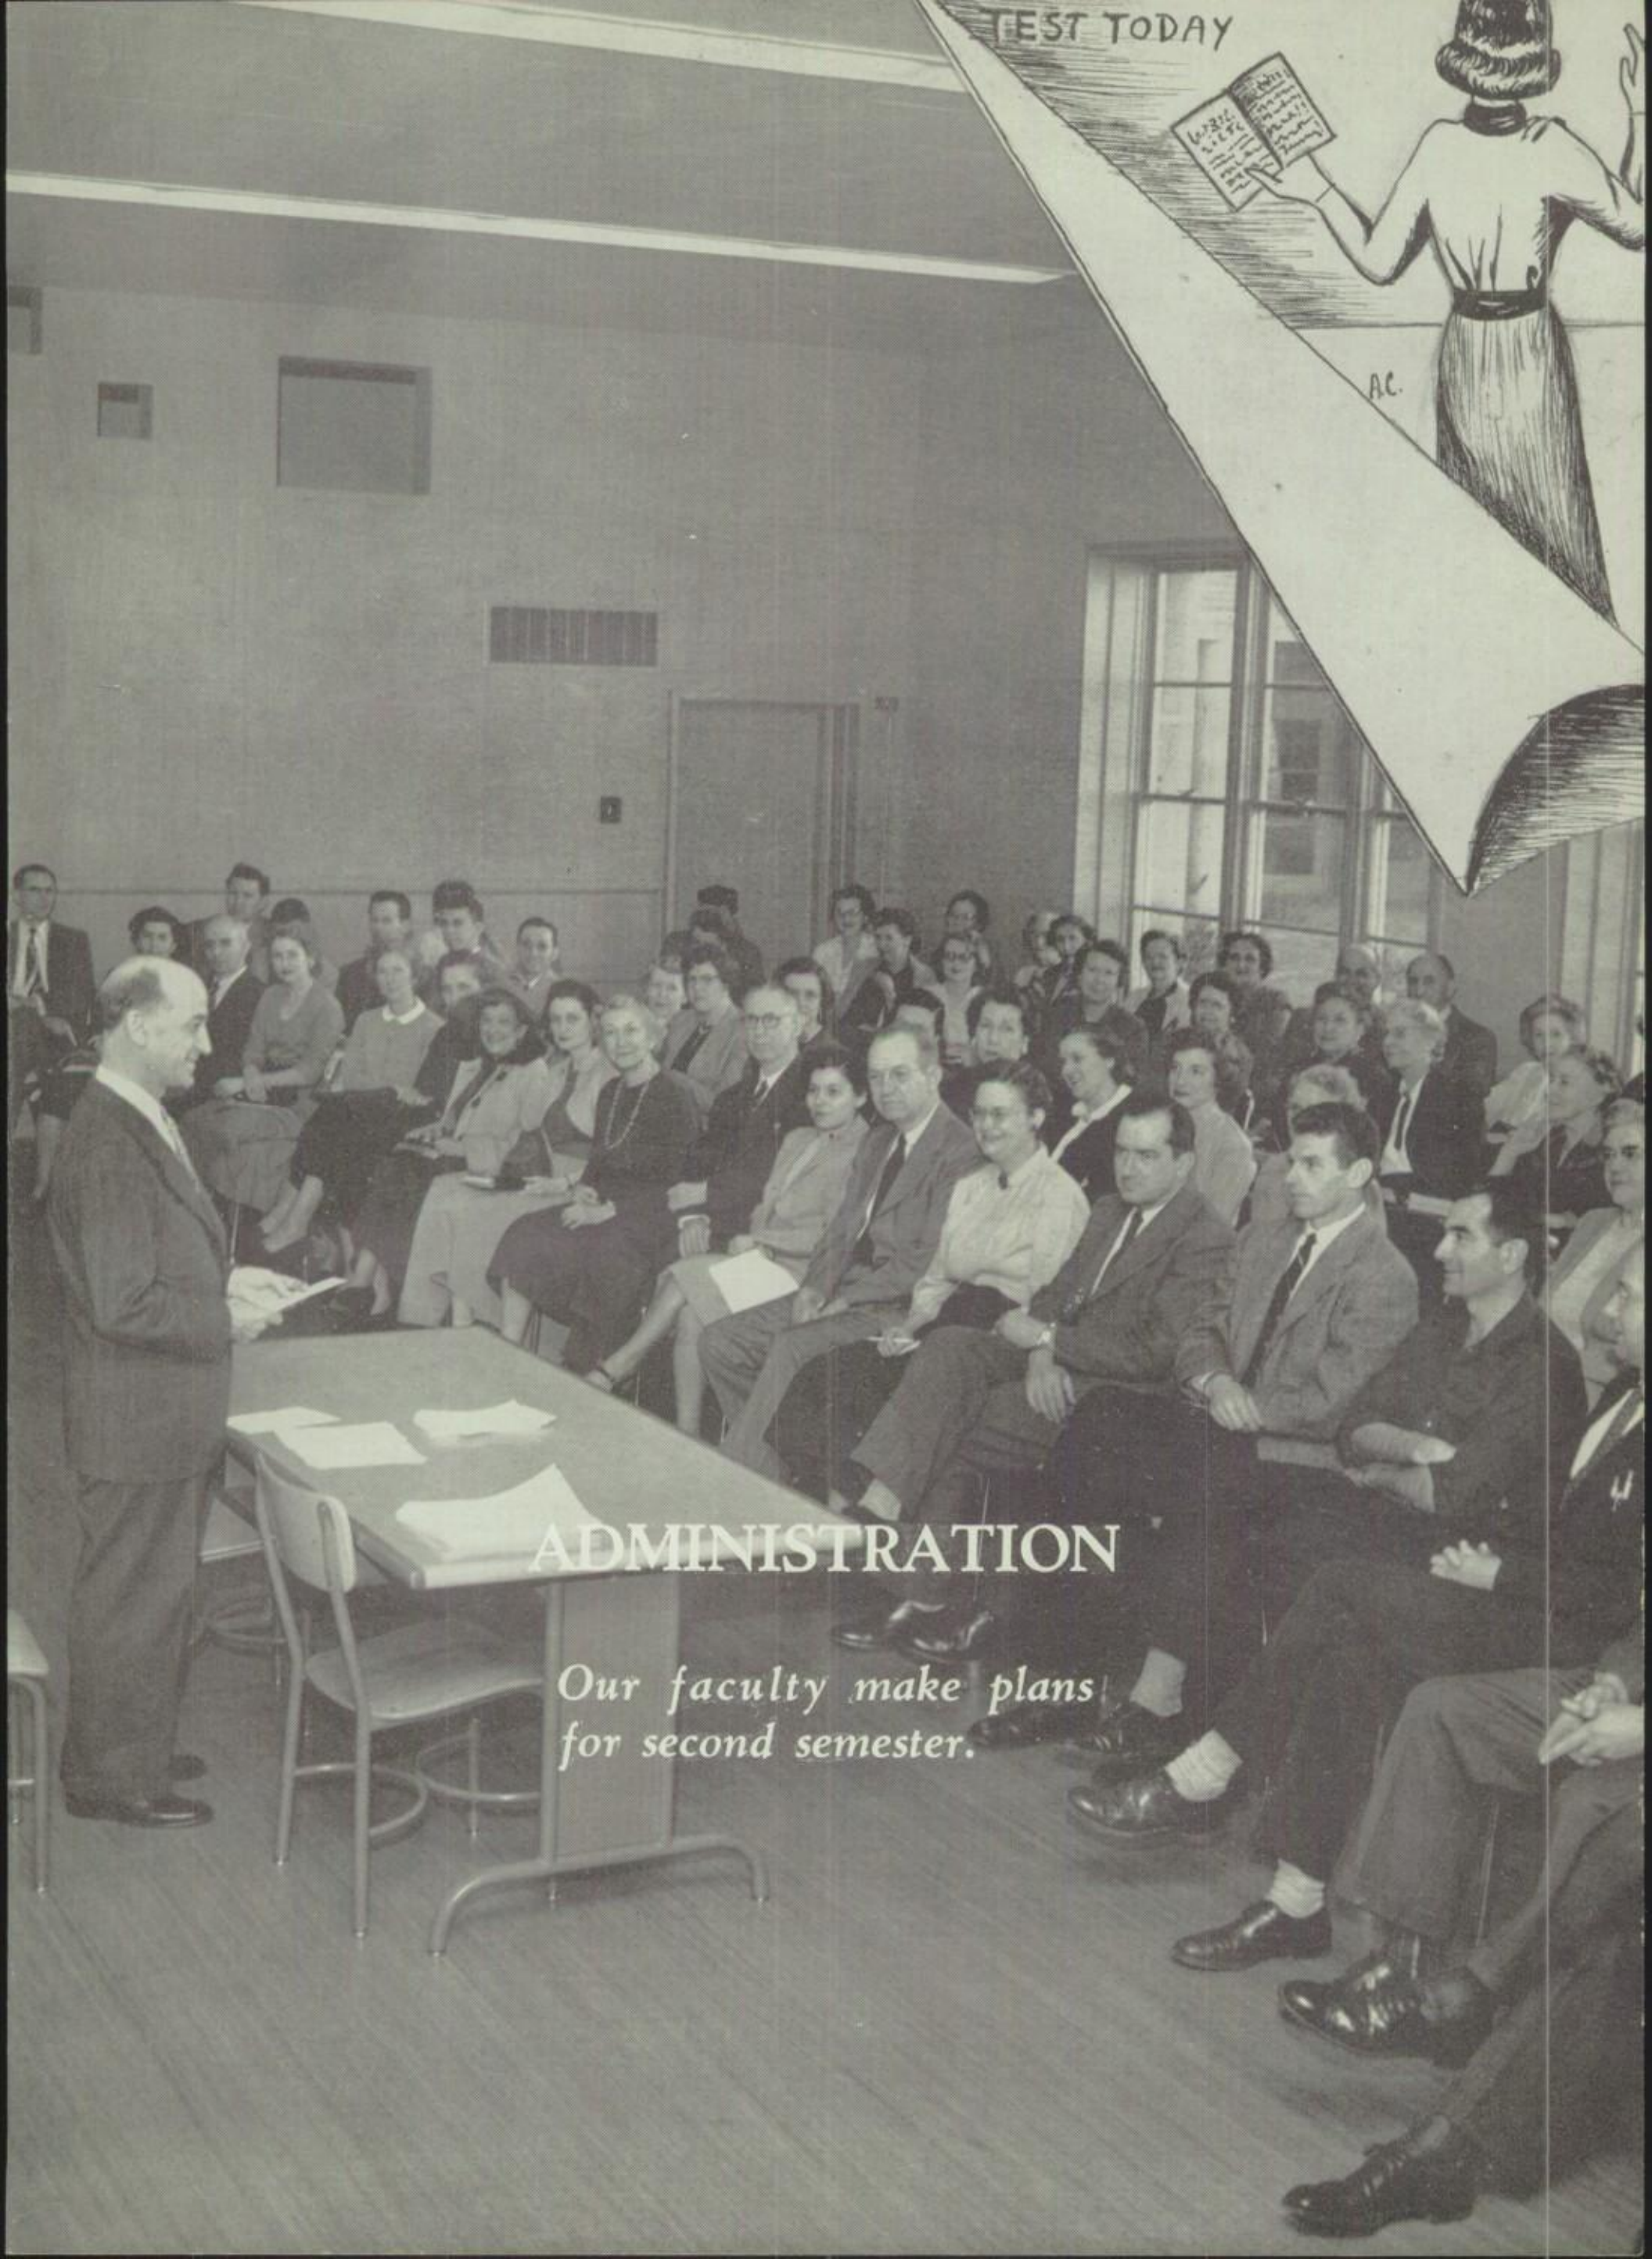

SCHOOL BOARD

Throughout America schools in every community are governed by School Boards, legally established committees whose responsibility is the education and future of our most precious resource—the children and young people.

In our city the School Board is composed of nine members appointed by the Lynchburg City Council for terms of three years.

The School Board member is responsible for the capital investments of large sums of money for building and equipment, for the annual expenditure of sums for salaries and other operating expenses, for the employment of numerous professional and other employees, and for the instruction of the school children.

Working closely with the superintendent, the School Board members make an effort to be informed as to their responsibilities and authorities so as to adopt the best educational methods, to maintain high standards, to operate efficiently and to plan for the future.

L. H. McCUE, JR.
Principal

The busiest man I know is Mr. McCue. Even though he is the rushed principal of our high school, he unfailingly attends our student activities.

Mr. McCue earned his A.B. Degree in English at the University of Virginia and his M.A. Degree in Science at the University of Michigan. Upon completing his education he became principal at Grundy High School in Virginia and then came to Lynchburg as a science teacher.

Having worked his way up to principal of E. C. Glass he has done his best to make it the best high school in Virginia.

With four instead of two . . .

Though Miss Armstrong is new to E. C. Glass, her face is not new to us as she was Assistant Principal at R. E. Lee Junior High.

Known as "the mother of the eighth grade," her main job this year has been to help the eighth graders adjust themselves to high school life.

She has helped make this an excellent year.

MARGARET M. ARMSTRONG
Assistant Principal

PAULINE FISHER STALL
Assistant Principal

Since she loves people, it is only natural that Mrs. Stall has a job that deals with people. That is the job of Assistant Principal.

Her chief aim has been to make everyone here feel important and there is no doubt in anyone's mind that she has made a grand job of it.

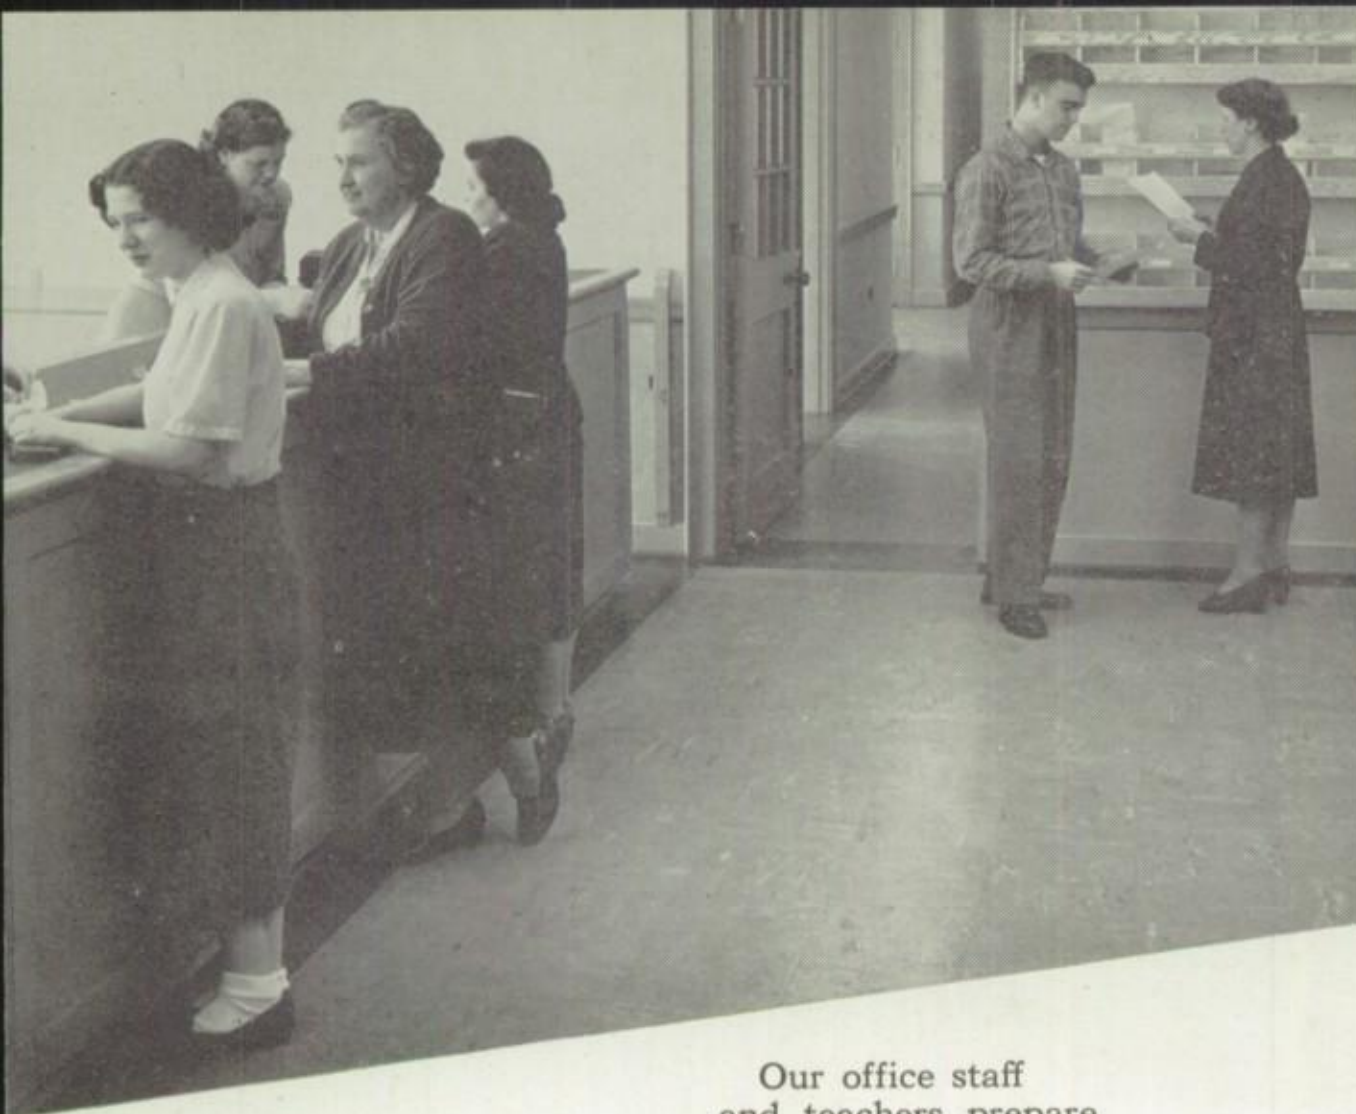

Upon the completion of the new school, there were several new jobs added to the administration. Among these was Dean of Boys filled by Mr. Winston Milam.

Mr. Milam came from Hampton and thinks this is a great school both because of its student body and because of its building.

We all feel pretty lucky that Mr. Milam has become part of us.

Eighth graders and high school at last! It seems too good to be true.

This newest high school class started the year with a merry skating party at Merry Garden Skating Rink, but thought only of others when they sent Care Packages to Korea in December.

An eighth grade class of a Brentwood, California school wrote to the eighth grade at E. C. Glass requesting a scrapbook of Virginia's history. A literary committee compiled a scrapbook which included a history of Virginia with photographs, booklets, and writings by members of the class from the very early Colonial days until today.

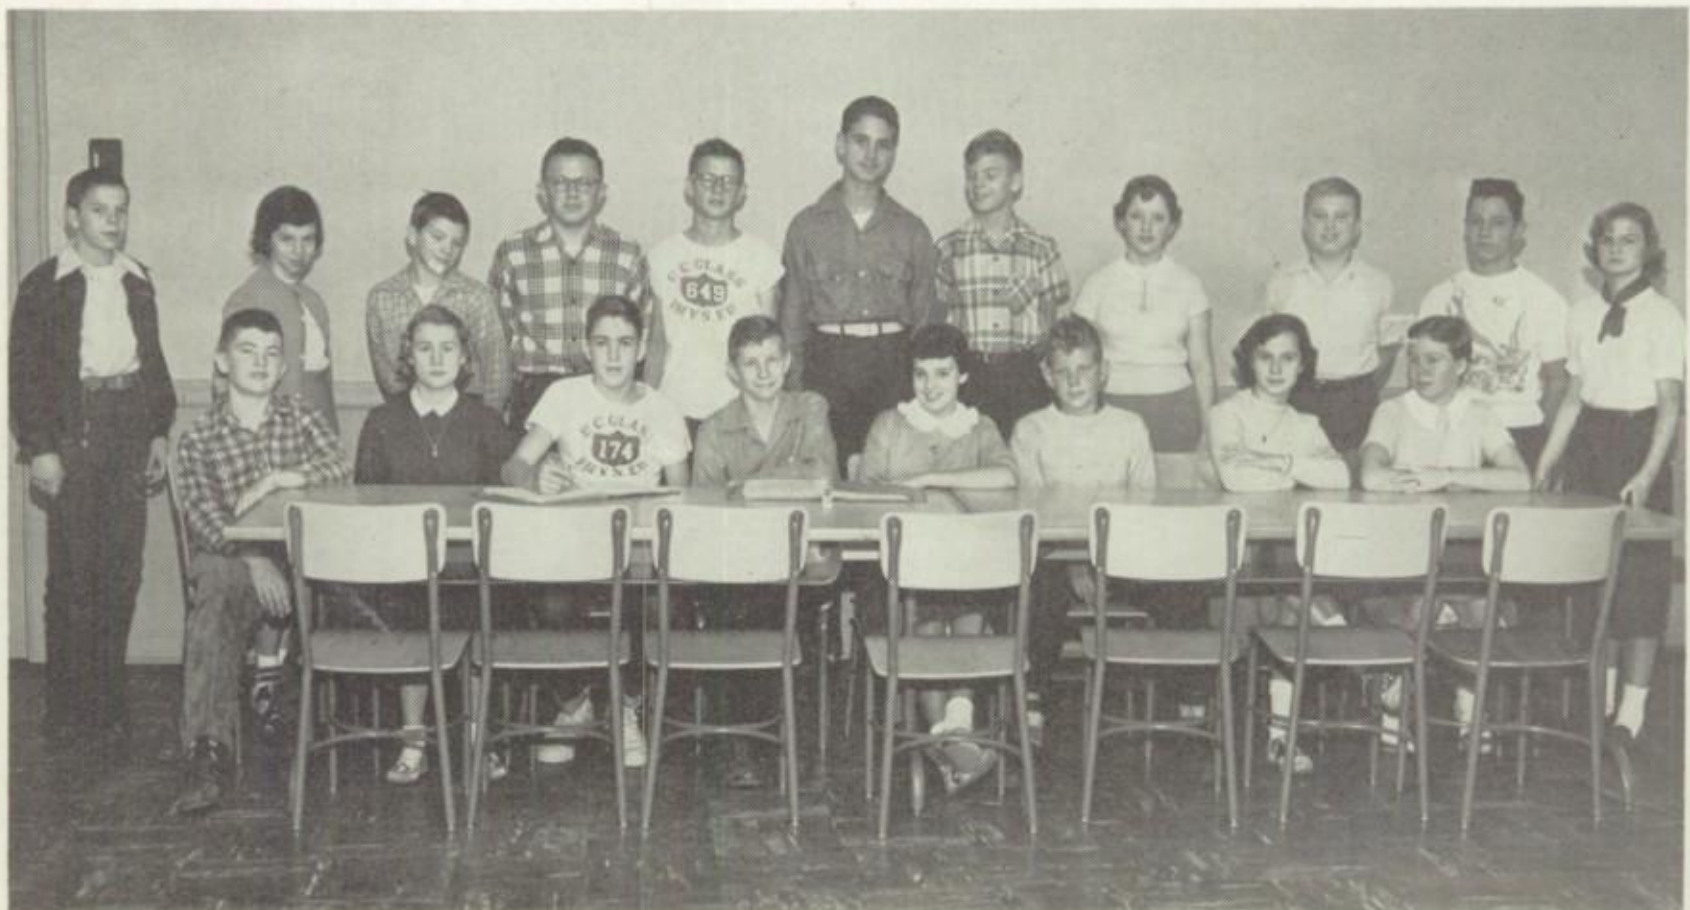

Spring came and with it on the social side a square dance and weiner roast.

With such a good start at E. C. Glass, the eighth graders look forward to four more years in our new high school.

When the doors of our new building opened in September, the Freshmen came tramping in, full of surprise and wonder at the beautiful school and proud to be its first Freshman Class.

With Mrs. Shirley Slaughter Embrey as their class sponsor, the Freshmen got off to a good start of social activities with a skating party. For their Christmas project they donated a basket to the WLVA Christmas Party. Our modern cafeteria was the setting for their colorful spring dance.

On the scholastic side the Freshmen are showing signs of high endeavors backed by hard work.

The Sophomores, finally attaining this lofty title, were feeling pretty cocky about getting up in the world until they found that they got lost along with everyone else in the new building.

Under the supervision of Miss Online White, the Sophomores enjoyed a weiner roast and skating party in November, a Christmas dance in December, a bowling party in January and a picnic in the spring.

In sports the Sophomores displayed versatility with many boys on the J. V. football team, and in track there were always some "Wise Fools" to help keep the teams going.

Scholastically the Juniors entered for the first time into the realm of geometry and the foreign languages. In the Community Chest Drive in the fall the Juniors led the rest of the school in contributions.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Senior Student Council is one of the most important organizations of E. C. Glass. It is the voice of the students. The homeroom representatives take ideas and suggestions given to them by members of the homeroom to be voted on and passed or rejected by the Council.

Members of the Council, the officers and their sponsor, Mr. C. L. Ramsey, have worked harder than ever this year to maintain a clean school, always one of their chief projects. This year in the new school especially commendable has been their accomplishment in keeping the cafeterias sparkling.

Other projects tackled by the Council during the year were selling football programs, serving as hall monitors, decorating the Christmas tree, sponsoring football and basketball hops after the games, and sponsoring the Bunny Hop.

The officers are: President, ED LOVERN; Vice-President, CAROL GEIPEL; Secretary, HELEN CASPER; Treasurer, HUEY CHILDRESS; Sponsor, MR. C. L. RAMSEY.

They met every week to plan our activities.

They kept our honor as spotless . . .

THE HONOR LEAGUE

Although we have a new school some of the old organizations weren't outdated. One of these is the Honor League.

Originated in 1909 it has been going strong ever since. The founders of our E. C. Glass Honor League modelled our system after the University of Virginia Honor System and it's been quite an endeavor to live up to the example set for us.

Each homeroom in the high school has a representative to the Honor League and these representatives keep everybody informed about what goes on. This year there have been more assemblies and less trials, the way the Honor League likes it to be.

The first assembly came early in the fall when the Honor League gave a part of the American Education week program. This was a program designed to orient the students to what the Honor League does and stands for.

. . . as the new high school.

FOURTH ROW: Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Barksdale, V. Allen, B. Reasor, C. Ring, P. Mundy, B. Pettyjohn, E. Ferguson, F. Tomlin, L. Noell, K. Padgett. THIRD ROW: B. Underkoffler, L. Preble, F. Moss, M. Crews, B. Apperson, P. Roach. FIRST ROW: B. King, S. Ragland, J. Hardesty, G. Hardesty, E. Grady, B. Chambers, K. Duck, E. Overstreet.

In the middle of winter, just before exams, the Honor League had an assembly of their own and really put over the idea to the students. Jim Massie, from V. M. I. and a former president of the Honor League, gave the main speech. Several other former presidents gave short speeches on how honor is indispensable in different phases of life, in business, in community organizations and in school.

This year has been a year of rare success for only one trial was held and the pupil easily set on the right track.

We only hope that the Honor League will be as successful in the coming years as it has been in its first year in the new High School.

"I do hereby promise that I will abide by the principles of the Honor League as contained in the Constitution, do all I can to promote and uphold the principles of the Honor League, and will discourage any dishonorable conduct among the pupils of the E. C. Glass High School."

JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

"Your feet are killing me!" This was the slogan used by our Junior Student Council in the campaign program to protect the grass this spring.

However, this was only one of their many projects. Others included a spring clean-up campaign and the attempt to get our national flag displayed in each homeroom.

Their first meeting was devoted to the organization of the Council and the study of parliamentary procedures.

Once organized and on their own, this group sponsored the March of Dimes Campaign for the 8th and 9th grades. The rest of the year they devoted all their energies to helping the Senior Student Council carry out their projects and so enthusiastically and so well did they help that we are already ranking them tops in school spirit and predicting superb work from them as Senior Student Councilors.

HIGH TIMES

"Go find stories!!!" "We need more stories!" "Did the ads get here?" "Throw me the headline board." "How long do you want this editorial?" "Get that story in tomorrow morning!" "You going to Amherst today? You'd better hurry. Miss Cunningham is waiting." From Monday to Thursday, these cries fill the room where the High Times, our school newspaper, is produced. On Wednesday make-up is completed. Thursday the commotion is removed to Amherst where five of the staff go for page proofs. Friday—yes, you guessed it—the paper is delivered as it is every week!

When he did laugh, however, it was at what he should not have and so he would never be happy until he had fallen in love with three oranges and had his love returned. After weird adventures the Prince and a friend find three beautiful oranges; and since the two men were very thirsty, they opened them. Out came three princesses, two of which die from lack of water, and the third of which revives, marries the prince and as "most fairytales end, they lived happily ever after."

Guaracha from the "Latin American Symphonies" by Gould is a scherzo built on a typical dance, waltz style from Cuba and is number seven on the program.

The "Russian Dances" Dance from "The Red Toppies" by Glazov is a typical Russian dance rhythm which skips the music to a climax of terrific intensity in which the tempo speeds up, the orchestra rapidly increases in volume and the rhythm goes mad.

News In Review

By Robert Thomas

On February 20 in Albany, N. Y., a Moscow-trained American photographer confessed to Sen. Joseph McCarthy that he had filmed the famed "Pumpkin Papers" that led to the perjury convictions of Alger Hiss.

Felix A. Inslerman, although never a card-carrying Red, testified before Sen. McCarthy that he had photographed State Department documents for the Whitaker Chambers spy ring.

Chambers, a confessed ex-courier for the Red underground led FBI men to a hollow pumpkin on his farm in Westminster, Md. and 47 State Department documents. These documents provided the main prosecution evidence in Hiss' two trials on charges of perjury.

Hiss was convicted of lying when he denied having given documents to Chambers and having seen Chambers after early 1938. McCarthy said that he wanted to get Chambers and Inslerman together and compare notes. Mrs. Chambers however, says that her husband has suffered from two heart attacks and refuses to have him disturbed.

THE CRITIC

"Oh boy, we get the Critic today! I can't wait." Everyone enjoys reading this magazine published tri-annually and it really is hard to wait. Composed of short stories, poems, editorials, essays, illustrations and write-ups of school news written by the students, the Critic is always a sparkling well-edited publication.

It is a challenge to every student to write a selection which is accepted by the Critic. The lucky writer is always proud as punch when this happens.

Estill Barksdale and her assistant editors for the first time working in a room just for the Critic have written this year excellent editorials and articles to make the magazine one every student enjoys.

The trophy case in the front lobby is filled with awards won by the Critic in past years and this year they won the highest honor awarded by Columbia University—the Medalist award.

THE CREST

From the early fall into the late spring the CREST Staff is busy working to give you the best annual ever. Clicking a typewriter, proof-reading an article, mounting innumerable pictures, running back and forth trying to get everything ready—those are only a few events in a hectic staff day. Meeting deadlines is the hardest job a member of the staff has to cope with, but somehow he usually manages to meet it by the skin of his teeth. And in the spring out of the great confusion will come the first edition of the CREST in the new high school, and one that will match in every way, we hope, the new building, one that is forty pages bigger than last year's annual.

THE GLASS EYE

Does anyone know a columnist from E. C. Glass who is always full of gossip? It couldn't be anyone but Eddie from the Glass Eye. Even when exam time rolls around and there could not possibly be any time for budding romances, Eyeful Eddie can always find some couples who are not cramming.

This very revealing column is only one of the many good ones in our school's youngest member of the literary family. Edited by eighth and ninth graders, the Glass Eye is primarily a newspaper for these grades. However, it always keeps well abreast of news from the entire school and is enjoyed by many an upperclassman.

This newspaper is the only Glass publication completely produced within the building with Miss Williams' classes doing the typing and Mr. Brown's boys, the mimeographing.

Art editors, Paulus Haynsworth and Bernard Brown, have kept the paper well supplied with humorous and serious sketches.

Miss Evelyn Allen and Mr. Charles Brown have done excellent jobs in assembling such a fine staff as the Glass Eye can boast. These writers are certainly getting good experience early and will go on to top positions with the older publications of Glass.

Joanne Cheatham and her assistant editors and helpers are certainly to be commended for starting the Glass Eye out on its road to certain success.

QUILL AND SCROLL

To be a member of the Carter Glass Chapter of the Quill and Scroll is really to have made an accomplishment. This international honorary society chooses for its members only those students who have done outstanding work in the field of journalism and who stand in the upper third of their class. A student at Glass may become a member only if he has excelled in the literary, business, art or editorial department of one of the three publications and has been recommended by the journalistic advisers and approved by the national board.

Established in 1928, the E. C. Glass Chapter of the Quill and Scroll has a great purpose as formulated by the executive committee: "to aid the cause of good journalism, to further the best interest of the community, to make reliable and loyal workers of its members, and, above all, to seek the truth."

FORENSIC CLUB

In the high school there is a large organization called the Forensic Club which is made up of four main divisions. They are: Public Speaking, headed by Miss Helen Brown; Debating, headed by Mr. James Mumper; and Reading headed by Miss Courtney Wilkinson.

In each division there are district and state contests in which the members compete with other schools. For several years there have been winners from each of these clubs and this year has been no exception. Dorsey Davidson went to the annual regional contest from the Public Speaking group. Estill Barksdale, Norman Moon, Don Markham and Howard Hansen represented Lynchburg at the district debating contests and competed with almost every major high school in the state. Owen Brodie in spelling, Dorsey Davidson in public speaking, Joanne Cheatham in poetry and Jimmy McKenry and Susan Cotts in prose went to the district meet to compete for honors in their respective fields.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

With a new auditorium like the one at Glass, it has surely been a big "must" to have good assembly programs. This necessity has certainly been realized, thanks to the hard-working assembly committee. The programs this year have been varied with educational, recreational and cultural appeal.

Fine speakers such as Miss Virginia Allen, missionary from the Belgium Congo, have visited Glass and been thoroughly enjoyed by all. A special activities assembly, a Christmas nativity pageant, and the spring concert by the Roanoke High School Choir, and the presentation of the Freedom Shrine by the Exchange Club were among the highlights of the year.

Led by Margaret Dameron, student chairman, and a faculty committee composed of Miss Marie Conson, chairman, Miss Virginia Wiley, Mrs. Baldwin Aud, and Mr. Robert Lee, the Assembly Committee has come up with excellent program ideas all year.

Our Roxy Theatre and . . .

DAVID GARRICK

Play night and the time for the great event has finally arrived! The "great event" was the first production by the David Garrick Players presented in our grand and glorious auditorium on November 25th. And what a night it was!

Jerry Gorman, portraying the part of the well-known Henry Aldrich, nearly brought the house down with the funny and embarrassing situations into which he got himself. The play, What A Life by Clifford Goldsmith, was full of great acting by talented David Garrick actors and, with the spacious stage and excellent lighting, it looked very professional.

The players, who bear the name of the celebrated eighteenth century actor, David Garrick, are composed of members and apprentices chosen from the student body for their interest and capability in any of the many phases of drama. Miss Virginia Wiley, who most ably directs all school productions, is the group's adviser.

The members of this fine club obtain excellent experience in acting, applying make-up and building realistic sets for the plays. A student who has participated in any of the many phases of presenting a play becomes eligible for apprenticeship in the David Garricks. He is then voted upon by the members and may become a full-fledged apprentice. Later if he continues his good work, he will be asked to become a member of the David Garrick Players . . . and proud is any student when he attains this honor.

This spring their sessions were again filled with activity as the festival play, The Twelve Pound Look, by J. M. Barrie, was made ready for presentation. This annual affair, the play festival with schools from the entire state participating, was held here at E. C. Glass on March 20th.

Leading this hard-working club are: Joe Maddox, President; Jerry Gorman, Vice-President; Mary Spence Pollard, Secretary; and John Withrow, Treasurer.

THE BAND

This new school is great, but 7:30 A. M. still comes at a dreary, old hour in the middle of the night. Yes, it's football time again, which means marching at "sunrise service." Of course, there are gripings, yawning, and frostbite, but band practice must and does pay off, for our band director, Mr. Carter, is a marching perfectionist. To the strains of "On Wisconsin" and "NC 4" the marchers strutted their stuff through football season under the very capable direction of their drum major, E. T. Hunt.

During the year, the band marched in the Korean Veterans' parade here in Lynchburg and for the Shrine Football game in Roanoke, where they won a loving cup. In January they played at the Academy Theatre for the March of Dimes campaign. Some of their members received the honor of participating in the All-State Band at Grundy, Va., in February and all members performed in the annual Spring Concert. The Memorial Day ceremony rounded out a year fitting to this magnificent new school.

THE ORCHESTRA

Creating an interest in stringed instruments is an exceptionally difficult undertaking, but Mr. Carter, the new orchestra director, has made admirable progress.

The orchestra has played for the majority of the assemblies and has been received by the audience always with pleasure.

Another example of their ability is the fact that they have played for a good many of the David Garrick plays. Since they did so well at the first play, they were asked to play for the rest of them, including the Senior Play.

In January the March of Dimes campaign had a big parade and variety show at the Academy Theatre and the orchestra was asked to be a part of the program.

The best players in the group finally had a chance to really show what they know; for, in the spring there was a Western District Meet in which the best players from all over the western part of the state got together in Richmond and had a festival ending with a grand concert on Sunday.

Winding up a year full of many new and old activities was the annual spring concert, a fitting climax to the first session in the new high school.

CHOIR

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Robert Lee, entered our new high school with new hopes and dreams of singing with angelic harmony on the stage of our magnificent auditorium. Their dreams came true Thanksgiving when they presented "Grandma's Thanksgiving" to the student body.

At the dedication of our United States and State Flags which were given us by the Daughters of American Revolution, they sang the beautiful and famous "Concord Hymn" which is Ralph Waldo Emerson's poem set to music by Clokey.

Kay Cawthorne, Marilyn Myers, Virginia Langel, Owen Brodie, and Rex Whitmer of the choir were chosen to participate in the All West Chorus which was held in Covington, February 19, 1954.

The Spring Concert, given May 14 in the high school auditorium, climaxed their year of activities.

The choir is a selected group chosen by Mr. Lee and the officers are:

CHORUS

The Girls' Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Ann Tanner this season was composed mainly of 1A, 1B, and 2A girls.

This organization is the foundation of the Girls Glee Club and the Choir. Having completed the training that the Chorus offers, the girls are then eligible for these other organizations.

Near the beginning of the first semester the chorus participated in the Music Assembly and sang "Some Enchanted Evening" from South Pacific and "I Believe," which had been arranged for them by Mrs. Tanner.

Concluding a very successful year, the Chorus joined with the Girls' Glee Club, Choir, and Orchestra to offer the annual Spring Concert on May 14.

RED CROSS

Under the sponsorship of Miss Eloise Brown and the leadership of Jean Champagne, the Red Cross Chapter opened its year, as usual, with a fall membership drive. In this drive each homeroom made a 100% contribution and the Red Cross amassed a total of $110 for its projects.

The 1954 Red Cross projects have been directed toward Germany and Korea. The chapter sent a knitted afghan to the German youth center and a school chest containing toilet articles, school supplies, and recreational equipment to a school for forty-five students in Korea.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Boom!!! . . . What was that terrific blast? Let's follow the smoke. Just as we thought, the Science Club is at it again. President Keith Hamilton, in trying to show how you concoct "dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane" (D. D. T.), poured acid in the wrong container but don't worry . . . nobody's hurt, just a little ragged around the edges.

Under Mr. A. J. Fielder's guidance, the Science Club commenced the new session early in the fall by electing the following officers:

President	KEITH HAMILTON
Vice-President	CAROLYN QUINN
Secretary-Treasurer	ANN JETER
Reporter	MITCHEL ARRINGTON

Then along came the senior day parade and a float was in order. To illustrate their classroom study, the chemistry students set up a float with people wearing different colors and different types of materials.

Throughout the year there were movies, such as "The DuPont Story," "Decision for Chemistry," "Unfinished Rainbows," "Deep Roots," and "Paper Work," and field trips to the water plant, the electric plant at Reusens, Heald Paper Plant, Lynchburg Foundry, and Allen-Morrison Sign Company.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

"Gee whiz, how am I ever going to find that book? I don't even know where to begin looking."

If it weren't for our very able Library Council, this poor pupil might not ever find his book. Composed of eighteen students under the guidance of Mrs. Mildred Dabney and Miss Elizabeth Vincent, our librarians, the Library Council helps pupils locate books, files cards, keeps the books in their proper order, prepares new books for the shelves, types cards, mends books and arranges colorful and helpful displays throughout the library. The workers are those pupils who have a free period during the day or those who wish to assist in the library before or after school.

Because of the decorating schemes and designs of the council, the library has become one of the most beautiful rooms in the new school and a pleasant, restful place for any student.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club composed of third and fourth year students studying Cicero plus a few sophomores selected on the basis of a high first year average have just completed a year of fun and entertainment. The Latin Club is unique in that its members learn a great deal at the same time that they are thoroughly enjoying themselves. Miss Lucille Cox completed her second year as sponsor of the Latin club and assisted the consuls, Kit Sydnor and John Bell, in planning six interesting meetings for the year.

The Delphic Oracle, transferred to Jean Groseclose's living room, answered in Latin each member's request as to his 1954 love life at the October meeting.

In November the Latin Club was honored to have Dr. Herbert Lipscomb from Randolph-Macon Woman's College relate Horace's remarkable insight into the changing conditions throughout the years.

The Christmas program, with games, a play, and songs in Latin, compared the Roman Saturnalia to our Christmas season. Dr. Gertrude Malz of Sweet Briar College very appropriately chose Martial's epigrams for the Valentine meeting. A modern Italian meal together was the climax of the year.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

The Distributive Education Club with twenty-five members under the sponsorship of Miss Anice Howell has for its purpose to train members in leadership, vocational competency, economic literacy, and social intelligence.

A year of accomplishments has marked the 1954 year of the D. E. Club. At many meetings members heard experts in various merchandising industries. The club decorated a float for the Senior Day Parade. It made a contribution to the WLVA Christmas Party for the under-privileged and assisted in the collection of gifts. March 8, 9, the D. E.'ers were represented in Richmond at the state convention of D. E. Clubs by Fred Stanberry. The officers are:

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The Future Business Leaders of America Club was established May, 1952 under the sponsorship of Mrs. Elizabeth Burmahln. This club is a national organization for students in business education.

The Future Business Leaders of America seek to develop business leadership, to encourage members to improve their home and community by developing character, scholarship, leadership, and thrift, and to improve and establish standards for occupations in the business world.

March 6, 1954, twelve members went to the Regional meeting at Longwood College. Two members of Glass's club are officers of the region. They are Virginia Withrow, President, and Helen Smoot, Secretary. Barbara Richardson, Mary Hamilton, and Cora Mae Jacobs represented the club in Public Speaking, Parliamentary Procedure, and Spelling respectively. Also on March 27, four members attended the State Convention in Roanoke.

During the year the club made money from a bake sale and the selling of Christmas cards, and they went on some field trips. The officers are:

On February 24, 1954, 24 girls received their Y-Teen pins in an impressive ceremony at the Y. The guest speaker was Margaret Dowdy, past president of the Tri-Hi.

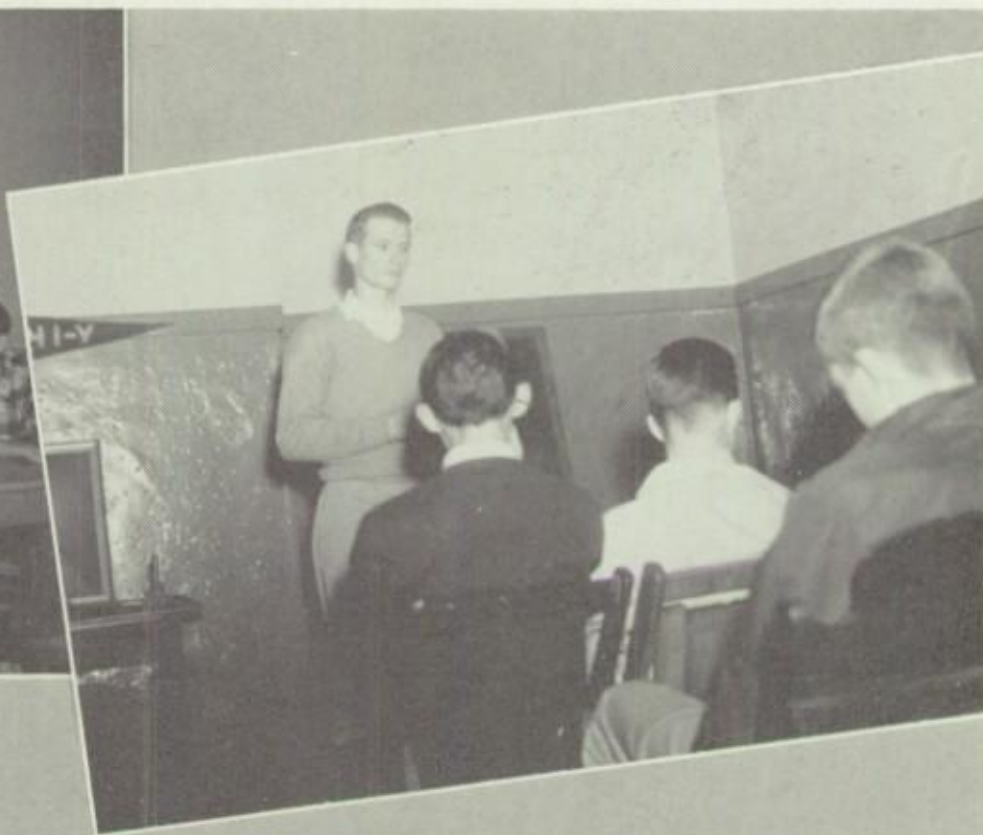

Miss Eugene Moore is the Y-Teen adviser.

After receiving their pins, the Y-Teens held an informal reception so the invited guest and parents could mingle with the Y-Teen members who had been pinned.

After the ball games, we all headed for the Y-Teen Hop. Changing partners and catching up on the latest gossip was the usual thing. The music was by the Cavaliers and boy—was it hot! Remember?

ART LEAGUE

Have you noticed the attractive displays outside the art classes this year on the bulletin board? It has been well worth any student's time to go a little out of his way to pass these rooms and see the beautiful and informative designs which are the work of the skilled members of the Art League. One of the main projects of this league, composed of all art students with Mrs. Margaret Helbig as sponsor, was the designing of Christmas cards.

Some members of the league are the art editors of the school publications. Wadih Pharaon and Van Thacker have done an excellent job with the Critic as have the CREST editors, John MacLeod and Alice Costan.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Yum, yum, where is that delicious smell coming from? The Future Homemakers of America must be having a banquet. They surely do know how to cook. But that's not all those talented girls can do. They can sew and style clothes as well as cook excellent meals. Any girl who takes Home Economics is eligible for membership in the F. H. A. which is under the direction of Miss Hannah Sutherland.

This year, the first one in which E. C. Glass has been furnished with home making equipment, is also the initial year of the Future Homemakers' Club.

Working in what is one of the finest high school Home Economics laboratories in the nation, these girls are easily able to turn out finished products.

Early in the year the club held a fashion show during which members modeled clothes made by themselves. Other activities included teas and parties and arranging interesting displays.

They end the year with a song.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

A new name and a new director, Mr. Lee, were in keeping with the new high school as this group opened the year by participating in a musical assembly when they entertained the student body by singing "When Day Is Done" and a spooky number called "The Haunted House." At Christmas they joined the other choral groups in the school to help present the traditional Christmas pageant which everyone in the audience enjoyed.

The program given in the spring was one doing great honor to the new auditorium in which it was held.

Head Coach
VINCE BRADFORD

V. D. BECKNER
Faculty Adviser of Athletics

Backfield Coach
JIMMY BRYAN

"Good evening everyone. Welcome to another E. C. Glass High School football game. Tonight we welcome the . . . team to Lynchburg."

These are the familiar words of Bill Moseley, our announcer. We are about to start another football season at Glass High, our first in the new building. There is a feeling in the student body that Glass will make good this year with all the necessary equipment and practice field which they always lacked before.

This year Head Coach Vince Bradford was blessed with the biggest turnout ever in the history of E. C. Glass. Back are such stalwarts on the forward wall as Doc Blankenship, Bobby Wade, co-captain, unable to play during the season, Bill Musselman, Preston Carwile, Bertie Keyser, Jimmy Smoot, and George Gary, with a good replacement in J. P. Vaughan.

Backfield Coach Jimmy Bryan has a 10 pound bigger squad with Tommy Glass, co-captain, and Clyde Brooks in the leading roles assisted by Bill Driskill, Verne Keefer, Kendall White, Terry Blankenship, Glenn Carter and Frank Spencer.

The Glass Gridders opened their season with a bang, by trimming Mount Vernon High School before the largest crowd ever to see an opening game at City Stadium. A pass interception in the closing minutes of the first quarter by Halfback Kendall White set up a 58-yard touchdown march with Tailback Bill Driskill tossing a short pass to Wingback Tommy Glass. Glass then took the ball about three yards out and fell over for the first touchdown. Bill Musselman's recovery of a Mount Vernon fumble set up the next score with Verne Keefer making the necessary yards. Glass won 14-0.

Great defense work by Bertie Keyser, Bill Musselman, and Jimmy "Moose" Smoot gave the Hilltoppers an impressive 14-0 win over Mount St. Joseph and boosted their winning streak to two wins. The play of the game was Emmett Kidd's pitch-out interception in the Gaels backfield and Verne Keefer's 2 yard plunge for the score.

Taking to the road, the Bradfordmen seemed to be a tough foe for the Newport News team as they scored early in the second quarter. Newport News, overcoming a 6 point deficit, knocked the Hilltoppers from the undefeated ranks 21-13 as they rallied in the second half.

We got a . . .

Due to the fact that Glass played poor ball all the way through the Danville Shrine Game, the G. W. team was too much for the big Blue. Glass traveled home with a 13-0 defeat.

Clyde Brooks showed up well as Glass capitalized on St. Benedictine's weak team and went on to break their losing streak of two games by a 19-0 win. Little Willie Gilliam snatched a St. Benedictine pass and pranced 50 yards to pay dirt in the last minutes of the game as Brooks scored twice during the game.

To top off a good evening of entertainment, the Hilltop eleven scored a 14-0 victory over a western district foe, for the Crippled Children's Hospital.

In their last away game of the season, Glass trounced Petersburg High School eleven 29-6 in a game in which many reserves saw action.

Salem, a highly rated ball club in the western district, scored the first touchdown on Glass's home field this season. Although Andrew Lewis brought plenty of power to Lynchburg, they were sent home with a 12-6 defeat by the Blue and White.

The Cadets of Augusta Military Academy were completely powerless against the stronger Hilltoppers who romped to an impressive victory, 52-7. The starting eleven were so aggressive that Coach Bradford took them out of the game early to let the fans see some of next year's performers.

The game of the season was Roanoke versus Glass. The winner of this tilt shares western district honors. Glass fans were given something to cheer about when Bill Driskill led the big Blue and White to a 12-0 advantage in the first quarter. But the Magicians worked some of their magic, and when the final whistle blew the score was Jefferson 19, Glass 12.

Even though every game was not won, Glass can boast a winning season with 7 wins and 3 losses. Every player played his best and at times played even better, so we congratulate Coach Vince Bradford and his 1953 team for the honors and school spirit they have displayed.

This year the Glass Jayvees were a rough, hustling, talented, bunch of boys, full worthy to fill the starting berths on the 1954 Hilltop Varsity. Their 6 and 2 record was the best of any preceding J. V. eleven has ever aspired to achieve, and yet they did the unbelievable. Under the guidance of Coaches Broome and Noechel, the Baby Hilltop squad turned in a performance which did them and their school great honor. Although no captains were picked, they were led by Donny "Duck" Williams and John Feagens throughout the season. The whole student body is very proud of the way the boys handled themselves and played good ball in order to bring a good name to the school. We congratulate each and every boy on the squad and may you do as well on the Varsity next year.

TENNIS

This year's tennis team has the chance to use and enjoy for the first time, courts at the new high school. They have 10 in all to use for practice and meets. On opening day of practice, 31 boys signed up to try out. Coach Bryan said he was pleased to see so many boys interested in tennis. Delayed by work on the courts, practice started on March 21, with A. Thornhill, B. Tinnell, D. Woodall, J. Withrow, M. Ebert back from last year. The first eight men were picked by the system of having challenge matches. Due to the fact that only three other Western District Schools have teams, the season was rounded out with Lynchburg College.

Concerning this year's team, Coach Bradford stated "we ought to do pretty well, certainly better than last year's squad."

Our hot-shot team . . .

COACH JIMMIE BRYAN

"Last year the team was great in victory, this year they were even greater in defeat." These were the words of Coach Jimmie Bryan as he praised his 1953-'54 basketball team.

With hold-overs Wistar Nelligan, Kendall White, Terry Blankenship, Arnold Thornhill, and Tom McCraw from last year's squad, the Hilltoppers presented the new high school gym with a clean sweep of their home games, while gaining a season record of 19 wins and 1 defeat.

They opened the season with a double win at home by out-scoring William Fleming 44-36 and drubbing Halifax County the following night by a 67-44 margin.

Taking to the road they traveled to their old rivals, Thomas Jefferson of Richmond, and kept their slate clean with a 57-55 triumph.

At Portsmouth the Bryanmen showed poor form but succeeded in out-pointing their opponents. The final score, 47-38.

In their first western district game, the big five played a rat-race game and smothered the Cougars of Covington by a 46-26 score.

Once more on the home court, the Hilltoppers surged past a hapless Salem quintet 63-38 as Kendall White dunked 19 tallys.

For the first time in the season they had to overcome a four point deficit in the fourth quarter, before they eked out a 53-48 win over St. Benedictine of Richmond.

Then came disaster!! With the defense falling apart in the third quarter and Danville's well-rounded team scored ten points in succession, the Glass cagers returned home with heads hanging from a 52-38 defeat.

St. Benedictine and Roanoke were the next two teams on the list to bow before the Hilltoppers, with scores of 60-39 and 55-45 respectively.

The next weekend they traveled to the Capitol City and edged past John Marshall 46-45 on a foul shot by Arnold. They romped over Hopewell's Blue Devils 71-42.

The Big Blue took both Salem and Cradock in their stride as they went on to win 58-38 and 70-45, boosting their record to 13 wins and 1 loss.

Next came the big Danville freeze. A calm Kendall White sank a two-handed push shot with 3 seconds remaining to give the Hilltoppers a 28-27 win, thus revenging their once defeaters.

Hopewell, Roanoke, and Teejay were next on the list to be caught in the Bryanmen's whirlpool of victories. Hopewell faded 78-61; the Magicians Magic was powerless and were served a 61-51 set back; T. J., without big Edgar Beard, was sucked under a 60-42 onslaught.

Ending the season at home the Hilltop five paved their way to the State Tournament with a 56-39 triumph over Covington and a 70-46 win over Portsmouth.

CAPTAIN WISTAR NELLIGAN

. . . Western District Champs, State Runners-up.

Tournament time again!! Coach Bryan and his boys, defending State Champs, journeyed to Arlington to meet Cicil Wright and Company in the first round. Paced by Arnold Thornhill who racked up 22 points, the Lynchburgers showed great form and ability in beating Newport News 63-50.

Washington and Lee of Arlington was the next to falter, and the defending Titliest stormed ahead to win 48-34. White and Nelligan were high for the night with 15 points each.

Meeting the Justices in the last game, the Big Five fought uphill all the way, doggedly trying to retake the coveted crown. But the Jayem was not to be beaten and sent the home team home with a 49-45 set back.

This year's junior varsity team was probably composed of the youngest bunch of boys ever to play basketball for the J. V. team in the history of E. C. Glass High School. Nevertheless, they showed up as good if not better than any of the past teams. With a record of 10 wins and 4 losses they had something to be proud of. They only lost to Richmond and Roanoke twice, but not until after they put up a good fight. Coach Johnny Noechel had no first team but started the boys whom he thought could handle the opponents the best. Some of the outstanding members of the team were: John Stinnett, David Blondino; Preston Tuck; Vernell Martin and J. D. Allen.

. . . what a gang our freshmen were.

This year marks the first time that a freshman basketball team has been organized at the high school. It is composed of boys from the eighth and ninth grades. Since the J. V. team played before the Varsity, the freshmen played in the afternoon. Led by Coach Earl Broome, they went through the season like a bunch of professionals. They played teams such as Appomattox, Hargrave B team, Altavista, and so on. During the season, the little Hilltoppers showed great form and ability to win tough games. They never let down when they got far behind in the game.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Along with our new school, there came new organizations. One of these was the Girls' Athletic Association, which was organized by the gym teachers.

An elected representative from each gym class was present at the meetings where planned schedules were worked out for different activities throughout the year.

Speedball, a new sport to Glass High girls, was really underway in the fall. After learning the techniques in gym class, the girls played in the tournament after school.

Those Square Dances even made the stage American Education Week when they were presented to the parents and other visitors.

Of course, Glass is known over the state for its basketball genius and to help support our title, the girls had a tournament, too. The gym teachers chose a team to play Lynchburg College one day after school.

Did anyone see any flying angels? Well, if you did—it was only a member of the tumbling team which was also sponsored by the G. A. A.

Then came Spring—up went the volleyball nets, out came the tennis rackets, softballs and bats; last but not least, came those blue zoo suits which were the fad in gym class this year.

The climax of a full year for the G. A. A. was when they were hostesses for Play Day Saturday, May 15. The schools of surrounding areas were invited to Glass for a day of fun and experience. The day planned from 9:00-4:00 consisted of volleyball, softball, tennis, square dancing, and getting acquainted with each other. Everyone brought a packed lunch, soft drinks were sold at school; and the girls all sat on the lawn, eating and jabbering, and just having plain fun. Afterwards, everyone settled down to watch some excellent demonstrations on dancing and tumbling. At 4:00 the day was called to an end.

It was a full year of fun and brand new experience for us, wasn't it, Girls?

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

As basketball time rolled around this year, there was a new spirit of vitality present. Who was going to miss a chance to dribble down the shining, new floor?

Each girl strived to do better than the next one, because she knew that there were only a limited number of girls who would be able to represent their grade. Two leagues, the junior league composed of the eighth and ninth year girls, and the senior league composed of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, were the only leagues to which a girl could be qualified. At the end of the season, each team had been chosen and the lucky girls finished the year with an exciting tournament, and an excellent record.

New school, new sports . . .

SOCCER

New grounds, new sports, and one of the most popular was soccer. Soccer is a game played to help create the skills for the more advanced speedball player. There were two leagues, the beginners 8th grade, and the more advanced 11th grades. During the early fall these girls took advantage of the weather and raced up and down the field in quest of the soccer ball. The leagues finished a successful season with nothing worse than a headache. You use your head in this game!

SPEEDBALL

"Ouch! You scratched me!" "That's nothing, I'm bleeding to death where you bit my arm!" "Now girls, let's have the kickoff again and see if one of your teams can't use a little team work and score."

So, another speedball game gets under way with shouts and screams and loads of fun. All fall the girls played this new and exciting game and it even attained such popularity that a tournament was played to climax a grand season.

BACK ROW: P. Coates, C. Sandidge, S. Badgett, M. Hunt, B. Keyser, M. Stokes, M. Fulton, B. Wilkerson, F. Tyree.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The highest honor that can come to a senior is being elected to the National Honor Society.

This year thirty-eight new members were elected whose names were announced at the assembly on April 13. Members of last year's group talked on the major points, character, scholarship, leadership, and service, necessary for election into the society. President Anne Gary Pannell of Sweet Briar College addressed the newly pledged. Climaxing the program were music selections by the Girls' Glee Club.

From his Freshman year through his Senior year, the "real student" sets the National Honor Society as a goal in high school and strives to attain an outstanding record in character, scholarship, leadership and service.

The National Honor Society Pledge repeated by each member at initiation is:

"I pledge myself to uphold
The high purpose of this society
To which I have been elected
Striving in every way

By work and by deed
To make its ideals
The ideals of my school
And of my life."

A student is secretly elected by the faculty to the National Honor Society during his senior year. A senior's character, scholarship, leadership and service to his school are taken into consideration.

. . . as their last year took shape.

SENIOR COUNCIL

The Senior Council, the governing body of the Senior Class, has been busy this year planning a glorious year for the first graduating class of the new high school. This body is under Miss Cox's supervision and is composed of representatives from all senior home rooms.

After class elections in the fall the council undertook the selling of E. C. Glass sweaters as a money-making project.

Great plans for a terrific Senior Day were formulated by the council and they took the lead in carrying out these plans making their Senior Day one to be commended.

The collecting of the Senior Budget was a difficult task which faced the council. However, with perseverance they accomplished this task.

During the mid-term break the Seniors had their much anticipated Senior Banquet and Dance which was the result of hours of faithful work and much thought and disagreement by the members of the council.

The coming of Spring and the new semester brought many important decisions concerning graduation before the council. Among these decisions were the choosing of caps and gowns, the selecting of graduation announcements, and deciding on an effective program for graduation. Plans for graduation exercises and the dance following graduation were made.

The Senior Council has had great responsibilities and a big task. However, by much effort and contemplation and with Miss Cox's assistance it has planned a successful year for the first graduating seniors of the new E. C. Glass High School, the class of 1954.

Queen Charlotte Wolfe and King Sonny Phillips reign on Senior Day.

On their day . . .

Some of the Seniors are decorating for the big occasion.

They really lived it up that day!

. . . the seniors took over . . .

1. The winning senior homeroom, 143, was decorated as a Hall of Fame. 2. "This is the life!" exclaimed Mickey Brooks as he crunched candy in class and as Seabron Adamee slept on Senior Day. 3. "Roll that peanut to the end of the corridor," demanded some Seniors of a poor, befuddled underclassman. 4. The lowly underclassmen had to bow to the Seniors. 5. "A Stranger in Paradise" was the theme of a wonderful Senior Dance which followed the banquet. 6. "Eat, drink and be merry," was the thought in the Seniors' mind when they celebrated the end of mid-term exams with the Senior Banquet.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Under Miss Cox's leadership the Senior Class officers with the help of the Senior Council have planned and made possible an outstanding year for our Seniors.

Class president, Bobby McDaniel, although serving his first year as a class officer, has worked diligently and led the Seniors through a year never to be forgotten.

As their vice-president the Seniors chose Estill Barksdale who has really been a conscientious worker and an outstanding leader. She formerly served as class president in her Sophomore year.

Nancy Jo Ferguson, also a "first officer," proved to be a reliable and competent secretary. She has undertaken the leadership of many Senior activities.

Carolyn Reid serving her second year as treasurer has accepted her job seriously and has really been made money-minded by all the many problems which have arisen. However, she pulled the Seniors through financially.

Miss Cox has led us "ad astra per aspera."
